Introduction

Presently, it is widely recognized that dynamic and productive individuals are those who can manage their emotions well. Research has indicated that certain practices can help individuals to obtain emotional excellence and emotional mastery. This emotional mastery enables the individual to have enhanced performance as a leader at work and at home.

In this seminar Dr. Yong will share on his internationally acclaimed personality profiling tool, The Leonard Personality Inventory (LPI) which can help individuals to understand how they can develop emotional excellence skills. Topics to be discussed include:

- ✦ Understanding our preferred behavioral styles by using the LPI
- ✦ How we can manage our work and our homes better
- ✦ How we can implement creativity in the workplace

Emotional Intelligence (EQ)

Emotional Intelligence (EQ) is the ability to sense, understand and effectively apply the power and acumen of emotions as a source of human energy, information and influence.

EQ emerges not merely from intellectual rationalization, but from the workings of the human heart. EQ requires that we learn to acknowledge and value feelings in ourselves and others - which we appropriately respond to them, effectively applying the information and energy of emotions in our daily life and work.

It is Emotional Intelligence that motivates us to pursue our unique potential and purpose, and activates our innermost values and aspirations, transforming them from things we think about to how we live.

Professor Dr. Leonard Yong (PhD; M.Ed; B.Sc.Hon)

is an industrial and educational psychologist who has gained international recognition for his research and consultancy work on creativity and emotional intelligence.

Based on his pioneering work on the LEONARD Personality Inventory (LPI) and the LPI software, and is used in helping individuals to develop their Emotional Intelligence (EQ) and creativity. Prof. Yong has consulted and conducted numerous training workshops in many countries such as the United Arab Emirates, Kuwait, Saudi Arabia, United States of America, Austria, Britain, Australia, France, New Zealand, Germany, Italy, Russia, Japan, China, India, Korea, Indonesia, Burma, Hong Kong, Singapore, Thailand, Papua New Guinea and many others.

He was awarded the 1992 Fulbright-ACLS/MACEE Award to undertake research on the creativity of Americans, the 1993 Japan Foundation Research Fellowship Award to conduct creativity on Japanese creativity and the Senior Research Fellowship, European Studies Program 2000 (Bocconi University, Italy) to conduct personality research in Italy, Germany and Scotland.

Leonard Personality Inventory (LPI)

The LEONARD Personality Inventory (LPI) was designed by Professor Dr. Leonard Yong to profile behavioural preferences of individuals.

The LPI has been administered to thousands of individuals from Asia, Europe, Australia and New Zealand. The L.E.O.N.A.R.D Personality Inventory is named after the acronym Let's Explore our personality based on Openness, Neutral, Analytical, Relational and Decisive behavioural tendencies to identify a person's emotional orientation and locate a person's preferred behavioural orientations.

The LPI Software that can be used to determine the exact personality profile of the individual. Based on the personality profile obtained, the individual is given suggestions and recommendations for:

- ✚ Personal improvement
- ✚ Enhancing teamwork with others
- ✚ Improving creativity
- ✚ Improving leadership styles
- ✚ Enhancing learning skills
